70 days Thanksgiving attitude

Ps 34:1-4

“ I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth. 2 My soul shall make its boast in the Lord; The humble shall hear of it and be glad.3 Oh, magnify the Lord with me, And let us exalt His name together.4 I sought the Lord, and He heard me, And delivered me from all my fears.”

Verses to be read about the indispensability of thanksgiving : Ps 71:8; Ps 71:14; Ps 71:15; Ps 145:1; Ps 145:2; Acts 5:41; Acts 16:25; Eph 5:20, Col 3:17; 1Thess 5:18; 2Thess 1:3; 2Thess 2:13

- ★ Express your Gratitude to God for His conclusive, and faultless thought about you before deciding to create you.
- ★ Give thanks to the Lord for making you unique through a meticulous master plan.
- ★ Express your Gratitude to the Lord for having harnessed whatever that lies ahead of you in terms of fortunes and misfortunes. The unique response is already known by the Lord, and the good news is that God had long ago worked out every circumstance about your life with respect to the past, present and future activities to be your testimony.
- ★ Let your heart rejoice concerning the Lord's available plan and program of blessing concerning you; before, during and after He created you.
- ★ Let the people of God be grateful to the Lord for the people to whom the Lord gave access into your world so as to facilitate good or evil or bad or right words which were spoken over you the day of your birth .
- ★ Thank the Lord also for the people who either cursed you in their hearts or with their mouths the day of your birth. The Lord will surely let them live in order that they might see the goodness and greatness of the Lord elevating you beyond their curses and expectations.
- ★ As much as gratitude must be an attitude, ingratitude can also be a hidden but conspicuous attitude in people. Gratitude is the weapon for obtaining more from the Lord.
- ★ Since I am alive, I am willing and ready to express gratitude to the Lord my maker concerning events that led or surrounded my creation, birth and formation by God.
- ★ I am grateful to the Lord for thinking about me in His kingdom before sending me as a pilgrim on earth. This could only be the master plan of a meticulous God.
- ★ Your gratitude must span the period during your birth, during biological and moral growth, inclusive in this category is gratitude during your teenage and adolescent ages in spite of whatever error that may characterize that phase of your life.
- ★ I am also mentally and emotionally available to express gratitude to the Lord for all the people who were involved in a direct or an indirect manner toward my elevation and education.

Today and always Lord Jesus Christ,

- 1) I have come to express my gratitude to you Lord because you have enriched me with all good things unto all bountifulness and goodness. 2Cor 9v11
- 2) I give you thanks today my Lord, because you ensure that I am built up in you and established in the faith according to the teachings which I have received. Col2v7
- 3) I give you praise oh Lord my God and my Father, because you hear my prayers always.
- 4) Today I lift up my gratitude to you O Lord because you have always given me the ability to dominate the anxiety that always arises in my soul.
- 5) Oh Lord, I am happy to offer the expression of my will with profound gratitude to you concerning all things in my soul because it is your will and your expectation of me.
- 6) I thank you Lord because you have made me a sign and wonder in the sight and perception of many generations. By this, you delivered me from every sentiment and dread of shame.
- 7) I am grateful to you oh Lord in that you have made me a contented person in all things, and not a deceitful or covetous person.
- 8) I express my gratitude in a deliberate fashion to you oh Lord, for those indestructible and unique things which you willingly gave me from above which are inaccessible to others before the foundation of the world.
- 9) I bless you oh Lord for those things which I will never possess in my lifetime, not because you are unable to make them available to me, but because your decision concerning all things is my security and satisfaction.
- 10) Oh Lord, I am grateful for the door of opportunity which I had thought was meant for me, but in your Love You refused me access because You have evaluated the dangers ahead of me which were invisible to me. Hence, because of Your covenant you protected me from unforeseen harm.
- 11) Oh Lord, my gratitude concerning all things will never stop nor cease.
- 12) Thank you Lord for using me in your own way, and not in my own way or according to my stipulated conditions.
- 13) Thank you Lord for being my justification, my fear and the forgiver of all my transgressions.
- 14) Thank you Lord for the corrective power that is associated with Your word of which You have made me a partaker. For your word is the only source of my blessing. It is also the joy and rejoicing of my heart.
- 15) I am grateful for the gift of the Lord Jesus Christ, and I am eternally grateful for his blood that was shed through the voluntary submission of himself to your will, so that no alien powers in heaven, on earth and in the seas will be able to exercise dominion over man.
- 16) I thank you for the overwhelming situations I thought I might never be able to overcome, but your sudden intervention was the reason for my escape and victory.
- 17) I am grateful to You Oh Lord, because You do not only cover my shame, but You have indeed rolled away the burden of shame and activities of ignominie from my life. Your word is my security, while your promises are my buckler and fortress.

- 18) Thank You Lord for receiving the expression of my gratitude as touching the guarantee You have given me by your word with which you created all things. By the same word You have made me stronger than he that seeks to conquer me.
- 19) I am expressing my gratitude to you today concerning the present circumstances that I am going through which I neither understand nor can explain, however my trust and confidence in You concerning all things is sacrosanct and immovable. Because you will always show yourself strong on my behalf by working these circumstances again in my favor through my obedience to Your word.
- 20) Thank you for helping me everyday of my life to see the explanations of all the events of my life from your perspectives, convinced that you control, direct, dictate and determine all activities concerning all creatures and that nothing will ever happen to me without your knowledge and approval.
- 21) Thank You Lord for surrounding me with your Love, building me in your faith and establishing me in your character. I give you my praise because nothing will be able to separate me from this Love of Christ which has become the anchor of my soul.
- 22) Thank You O Lord for the people You have always directed towards me to share in my honor and partake of my happiness.
- 23) I thank You equally for certain people whose activities around me had caused me pain and sorrow, but they couldn't hinder my progress and victory. Lord I glorify you in advance for not rendering to these people the consequences of their evil works.
- 24) Receive my gratitude Oh Lord, because in my tabernacle, joy, praise and appreciation will never cease.
- 25) Never will I only praise Your works or dignify Your wonders when it is only convenient for me, for my gratitude will mount to You in every season and at all times of my existence. Because of Your thought of goodness and peace to give me a future of hope with a happy ending.
- 26) I bless you Lord for faithfully afflicting me. By the stripes of your afflictions you have drawn me away from those debilitating characters (such as murmurings, hesitations, complaining) that render me constantly vulnerable to anguish and failure in the works of my hands.
- 27) I express my gratitude to You today my God because of my confidence in your covenant of grace to reinforce the prosperity of the works of my hands and augment the degree of fruitfulness through multiplication.
- 28) I am grateful for the biological and spiritual children you have given before times began within my assigned spiritual geography. I thank You for the ones that have come forth, and for those that are still in the realm of the Spirit. I bless you Oh Lord because I am confident and persuaded that Your glorious and mighty hand is upon them to do them good wherever they go and in whatever they lay their hands upon.
- 29) Thank You Lord for helping me to identify my weakness in areas of giving and receiving. Now I thank you for opening my eyes to spiritual generosity, in that it is much more blessed to give than to receive. Understanding that giving and maintaining good works are spiritual means of keeping in harmony with the will of God and of reinforcing my spiritual fecundity is one of the deliverance you have done for me.

CGCC Ministry

- 30) Thank You my Father for constantly deepening my Love for the word of God, without despising prophecies or neglecting the importance of prayers as I walk and work with You.
- 31) Thank you my God. My pledge to you forever oh Lord is that of Constant gratitude as an irreplaceable attitude and attribute whenever I stand before God.
- 32) I am expressing my deepest gratitude today and always to You for constantly giving me the ability to maintain focus in areas of spiritual exigencies (such as self-control, obedience, faith and love) which is necessary for the fine-tuning of my character, while you also help me to desist from shifting my personal responsibilities (necessary for me to be whom God desires that I should be) unto the Lord to carry.
- 33) Thank you Lord for helping me daily and in every place by the Holy Spirit to be alive to my responsibilities, and to be on the same page based on your kingdom's standard. In such a way that my personality in both public and private places reflects and aligns with the nature and character of the Lord, such that Christ is seen to be glorified in me everywhere.
- 34) I am truly full of gratitude for helping me to trust in your unfailing ability O Lord, and for encouraging me to give you the nonnegotiable freedom to be the one choosing my social circles, friendships and geo-positioning as I walk with you. Such that I am not spiritually contaminated in my quest for connecting with people.
- 35) To You O Lord belong my appreciation and my gratitude for the Holy Spirit regenerated heart which you have developed and established in me to help identify the sweetness of your peace and goodness of your grace as I walk with you.
- 36) I bless you, O Lord, for binding my hope and expectations to Your word, even as you help me in improving positively concerning my faithfulness and personal ministration to people.
- 37) Today Lord I am expressing my profound gratitude for the Love You have for me before I came into this world. To the extent that you made atonement available for any sin that could characterize my existence and indeed you have already atoned for all my sins by the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ on the Cross.
- 38) I am expressing my gratitude to You for ensuring that I see the light of your salvation. Thanks for the uncountable times in which I had disappointed you, yet you have always received me to yourself by creating pathways for me to be received by you.
- 39) Thank you O Lord for the gift of the breath of life with or without assistance, and above all for the peculiar gift of precious life through our Lord, our King and savior of humanity. By whom I receive the ability to hope in you and always in your word.
- 40) I bring you worship and thanksgiving concerning all my shortcomings with respect to the countless disappointment I have experienced in the course of my sojourn with you on the earth. You are the maker of disappointment, for the purpose of instructing and helping us to know and recognize when our own appointment comes. I bless your holy name for always using disappointment to help in keeping me at bay from mishaps and misfortunes that are hidden in every ungodly appointment.
- 41) I bless you o Lord for those bad and evil things that happened to me in life regardless of their causes.

CGCC Ministry

- 42) Today oh Lord, I've come to express my gratitude to You Lord for those prayers I had prayed which your sovereignty and will over me couldn't allow You to respond according to my personal propositions, expectations and or will.
- 43) I bring you worship today my Lord for those good things that I have experienced in life which have brought me joy and happiness.
- 44) Thank you Lord for having delivered me from traditional idolatry, professional idolatry, material idolatry, financial idolatry, and above all for being the only Lord that rules over my personal will.
- 45) Also today Oh Lord, I love to bring you praise concerning the wonderful people You've brought across my path. I glorify your name for those that have misunderstood me, equally for those that understood me.
- 46) Oh Lord I honor you today as I bring the blessing of peace and prosperity upon wonderful people whom I had deliberately offended wherever they are located.
- 47) Oh Lord as I bring You worship today, I equally declare the blessings of peace and prosperity upon those that had offended me deliberately or otherwise.
- 48) I bless You Oh Lord for the precious lives of every member of my natural and spiritual family. I declare upon them the blessings of peace and prosperity and expansion of their stature.
- 49) Thank You Lord for healing every strange and generational defects noticeable or invisible in our family members including my nieces, cousins, nephews, etc.
- 50) I bring You praise today concerning the nation of my sojourn and that of birth.
- 51) Thank You Lord for making or birthing the right nation out of these nations.
- 52) I praise You almighty God for always exercising your lordship, and kingship over all the nations irrespective of the attitudes of their leaderships.
- 53) I bring You adoration today for the present state of the ship and affairs of my country.
- 54) I bless You o Lord for never allowing the ship of our nations to run aground nor drift into oblivion despite what negativists are proclaiming.
- 55) Thank You Lord for the various resources(materials, human) you have distributed over the nations for different generational exploitation and usage.
- 56) I bless You today Lord because we know that You will cause our nation to bring you honor and praise with the resources in it.
- 57) Today I bring You worship because you will look down from heaven and ensure that my nation does flourish and is elevated in the principles of righteousness, mercy and justice in every layer of governance.
- 58) I bless You today o Lord for preserving, according to your spoken and prophetic word, the resources which you have put in my own name in every nation of the earth such that no policy of government, man or politics will be able to pilfer my own resources until I receive them from you.
- 59) Thank you almighty God, for I know that You will surely help me in my determination to live right in thoughts, in conducts, in words and in social relationships.
- 60) I bless and glorify you today as I am confident that you will and you are already making me a vessel of service to your heavenly kingdom and to humanity.
- 61) Oh Lord I am thanking You today in particular for those prayers I never prayed, yet You searched my heart to grant me according to Your will, and by such You gave favorable and direct responses to the deepest desires of my heart.

CGCC Ministry

- 62) Today Oh Lord I worship You for the near death situations from which You rescued and delivered me.
- 63) I bless You today my Lord for the gift and fruit of the Holy spirit, and also for using them in the perfection of my character and mindset.
- 64) Today I am honoring You O Lord for granting me understanding and clarity in certain of my preparations, situations, and above all for always sorting out in my favor circumstances that I do not understand.
- 65) Oh my Lord my heart is filled with gratitude today as always unto You for the battles You silently fought on my behalf without my knowledge, and in this also that you have always turned them around favorably for me. It is my testimony Oh Lord, that because of your Lordship and sovereignty over my entire life, satan or his representatives have never claimed any victory over the outcome of my situations, because You O Lord, have always been the outcome.
- 66) I bless Your Holy name O Lord for always giving me courage and strength in my soul whenever I am subjected to affliction or hardship or disappointment.
- 67) I magnify Your name O Lord in that You have always kept your word concerning me and you have never abandoned or forsook me; this is evident in Your constant presence around me, inner presence within me and Your mobile presence with me.
- 68) Blessed be Your holy and everlasting name O Lord Jesus Christ from everlasting without end, because by the Holy Spirit you have given me the ability to control my emotions, moderate my temperaments and Master my heart no matter the circumstances around me.
- 69) I bring you honor today Oh Lord for always helping me to contribute positively and directly to the upliftment of my church without pride by my words, by my character, and by my resources, in such a way that I am considered by You as your partner in the building of other nations and churches.
- 70) I have come to express my profound gratitude Oh Lord because You are always helping me and guiding me through living in health, in wealth and in strength by Your word upon my life. Because it is through the fear You have inculcated in my heart that I am able to serve You, and positioned to build others around me without contributing in any way to their destruction.
